ELFONZE

Elfonze Technologies Pvt Ltd.

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

WELCOME TO OUR COMPANY

Policy Effective Date: 01/04/2025

No part of this documentation may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying or recording, for any purpose without the express written permission of the CEO of Elfonze Technologies Pvt Ltd.

© 2025, Elfonze Technologies Pvt Ltd. All Rights Reserved. Confidential

Revision History

Ver No.	Description	Prepared By	Approved By	Date
1.0	Introduced Handbook	Thangamma Somanna	Vijai Velu and Vinod Kumar	01/04/2025

CONFIDENTIAL

Contents

1. Introduction 6

1.1 Purpose of the Employee Handbook 6
1.2 Welcome message from the CEO 7
1.3 Company History 8
1.4 Company Mission 8
1.5 Company Vision 8
1.6 Company Values 8
1.7 The company's commitment to employees 9
1.8 Business ethics and code of conduct 9
1.9 Confidentiality Policy 12

2. General Employment Information 14

2.1 Hiring Policy 14
2.2 Equal Opportunity 14
2.3 Employment Eligibility 15
2.4 Joining Process & Required Documents 15
2.5 Employee Induction 15
2.6 Appointment and Probationary Process 16
2.7 Employment Categories 16
2.8 Promotions 17
2.9 Rehiring 17
2.10 Open-Door Policy 17
2.11 Personnel File Policy 18

3. Work Timings 18

3.1 Working Hours 18

4. Workplace Professionalism and Company Representation 19

4.1 Professionalism and Conduct Policy 19
4.2 Work-appropriate Hygiene and Cleanliness Guidelines 19
4.3 Work Dress Code 20
4.4 The A, B, and C of Professional Conduct 21
4.5 Meeting Etiquette 21

5. Workplace Environment Policy 22

5.1 Sexual Harassment 22
5.2 Health & Safety Guidelines 22
5.3 Smoke-Free Environment 23
5.4 Alcohol and Drug-free Environment 23
5.5 Prohibitions and Penalties 23

5.6 Workplace Visitors 23
5.7 Giving and Receiving Gifts and Perks 24

6. Infrastructure: Use of Company Equipment and Electronics 24

6.1 Computer and IT Resource Usage 24
6.2 E-mail Usage 24
6.3 Cell Phone Usage 25
6.4 Internet Usage 25
6.5 Blogging and Social Media Usage 25
6.6 Confidential Information in Blogging 26
6.7 Respect and Privacy in Blogging 26
6.8 Power Conservation 26

7. Return of Company Property 26

8. Performance Expectations and Evaluation 27

8.1 Performance Management System 27
8.2 Appraisal Process 27
8.3 Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) 27
8.4 Conflict of Interest 28
8.5 Complaint Procedure 28

9. Employee Misconduct 28

10. Reimbursement Policy 29

10.1 Mobile Reimbursement 29
10.2 General Reimbursement 29

11. Travel Policy 29

12. Leaves & Holidays 29

12.1 Leave Rules 30
12.2 Types of Leave. 30

13. Absence 32

14. Work from Home 32

14.1 Eligibility 33
14.2 Process 33
14.3 Communication 33
14.4 Abuse of the Policy 33

15. Background and Reference Check 34

16. Notice Period 34

16.1 Buyout Clause 34
16.2 Gardening Leave 34

17. Termination of employment 34

18. Separation Policy 35

19. Employment Compensation & Payroll Information 36

19.1 Pay & Confidentiality 36
19.2 Compensation Package Breakup 36
19.3 Deductions from Gross Salary 37

20. Basket of Allowances (BOA) 38

20.1 Flexi Benefit Basket 38

21. Retirement 39

INDEX OF POLICIES 40

1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose of the Employee Handbook

This Employee Handbook outlines the policies, procedures, benefits, and working conditions applicable to all Elfonze employees. It also defines the Standards of Conduct expected while conducting company business.

This handbook is not an employment contract and does not create any contractual obligations for the company. It serves as a reference guide for employment-related policies but does not override the official policies maintained by HR or respective policy owners. In case of any discrepancies, contact the HR team.

Elfonze reserves the right to modify, withdraw, or update policies, benefits, and working conditions at its discretion, without prior notice. Employees are encouraged to stay informed by regularly reviewing the Employee Handbook for updates.

No provision in this handbook or the Standards of Conduct may be waived without written approval from the CEO or an authorised designee. Such waivers, if granted, will apply only to the specific employee and situation.

At Elfonze, we strive to foster an employee-friendly environment where innovation, collaboration, and excellence drive our success. We are committed to maintaining a workplace that balances both employee and customer interests, ensuring quality service and a thriving work culture.

Employees will be required to acknowledge receipt and compliance with this handbook and its policies.

Warm regards,

Human Resources Department

CONFIDENTIAL

1.2 Welcome message from the CEO

Dear Team,

On behalf of the Management and your colleagues, I extend a warm welcome to Elfonze. We are excited to have you on board and look forward to your contributions to drive our growth and success.

At Elfonze, we believe that every employee plays a vital role in shaping our future. This handbook has been designed to provide you with essential information about our expectations, policies, programs, and employee benefits. Familiarising yourself with its contents will help answer many of your questions about working here.

We hope your journey with us is challenging, fulfilling, and rewarding. Once again, welcome to the team!

Best regards,

Vijai Velu

CEO
Elfonze Technologies

CONFIDENTIAL

1.3 Company History

Elfonze was founded with a vision to go beyond the routine, fostering a dynamic workforce that thrives on innovation. The idea was not just to build another IT company but to create a brand that carries the essence of our CEO's journey, one that is self-driven and shaped by strong values.

From the start, we wanted Elfonze to be a place where talent is recognised, nurtured, and given the right platform to make a difference. Our focus has always been on pushing boundaries, whether by creating new services and products, diversifying into emerging spaces in and beyond IT, or collaborating with industry and technology partners.

Most importantly, Elfonze is built for those who are willing to step out of their comfort zones and go through the grind. This relentless drive for growth and excellence is what sets us apart and defines who we are as a company.

1.4 Company Mission

Elfonze is on a mission to redefine digital transformation. We merge top-tier IT and engineering expertise with ground-breaking AI platforms to tailor innovative solutions that address real-world challenges.

Our strategy is simple: collaborate, innovate, and elevate, ensuring every client achieves unparalleled efficiency and superior outcomes.

1.5 Company Vision

Elfonze envisions a future where our leadership in IT and engineering, powered by revolutionary AI platforms, sets global quality benchmarks for innovation and excellence. We aspire to drive transformative changes across industries, enhancing efficiency and elevating human potential to create a more connected world.

1.6 Company Values

At Elfonze Technologies, we believe in delivering quality over quantity, a principle reflected in our motto:

"In a world of quantity, we offer quality."

We are dedicated to precision, innovation, and integrity, ensuring that every product, service, and decision meets the highest standards. This commitment is at the core of our work, our people, and the way we serve our clients.

CONFIDENTIAL

As an employee, you play a crucial role in upholding these standards. This handbook outlines the policies and expectations that support our mission.

Our Core Values:

- ✓ Respect for every employee's view and contribution
- ✓ Leadership through timely and high-quality service
- ✓ Passion, integrity, and honesty in all that we do
- ✓ Excellence is our standard in every endeavour
- ✓ Strong customer relationships built on trust and reliability

1.7 The company's commitment to employees

This chapter addresses the company's commitment to providing a safe, high-quality work environment for its employees, including management, staff and contract labour. Elfonze commits to the following:

- Payment of fair wages compared to the market average and provision of basic benefits.
- Provision for enhancement and training for the workforce, including sub-contracted labour.
- Provision of training and skill development to help them perform better and attain career progressions.
- Observe best labour practices such as opposing child and forced labour, including from sub-contracts and outsourcing agencies, equal opportunity for all sections of society, and opportunity for the differently abled and various ethnic groups.

CONFIDENTIAL

1.8 Business ethics and code of conduct

At Elfonze, we uphold the highest standards of integrity, professionalism, and ethical conduct. All employees, including executives, are expected to adhere to the following principles:

1.8.1 Honesty

Employees must be truthful and transparent in all interactions. They should not distort information, exaggerate, or withhold key details. Discrimination or failure to fulfil responsibilities is unacceptable.

1.8.2 Integrity

Employees must demonstrate personal integrity by standing firm on ethical principles, even under pressure. They should remain impartial, act with professionalism, and never compromise their values for personal or professional gain.

1.8.3 Trustworthiness

Employees should provide accurate and complete information, correct misunderstandings, and honour commitments. They must not misuse technical or legal loopholes to evade obligations.

1.8.4 Loyalty

Employees should remain dedicated to the company and their colleagues, maintaining confidentiality and avoiding conflicts of interest. Those leaving the company must handle the transition responsibly and never misuse confidential information for personal benefit.

1.8.5 Fairness

Employees must act justly, avoiding manipulation, coercion, or dishonest tactics. Fair leaders respect differing opinions, admit mistakes, and are willing to adjust their views when necessary.

1.8.6 Concern for Others

Employees should be compassionate and supportive, aligning business goals with the well-being of colleagues and stakeholders. Ethical decision-making should always prioritise fairness and respect.

1.8.7 Respect for Others

All employees must treat colleagues, clients, and stakeholders with dignity, respecting personal rights, privacy, and differences. Discrimination based on gender, class, race, or any other factor is strictly prohibited.

1.8.8 Commitment to Excellence

Employees should strive for continuous learning, skill enhancement, and professional excellence to fulfil their responsibilities effectively.

1.8.9 Leadership

CONFIDENTIAL

Leaders must lead by example, fostering an ethical work environment and ensuring ethical decision-making is a priority at all levels.

1.8.10 Reputation and Morale

Employees must safeguard the company's reputation and morale by maintaining professionalism, preventing unethical behaviour, and taking corrective action when needed.

1.8.11 Accountability

Every employee is responsible for their actions. They must uphold ethical standards, take ownership of their duties, and work collectively to maintain a culture of trust and integrity.

By adhering to these principles, we ensure Elfonze remains a workplace built on trust, respect, and ethical excellence.

1.8.12 Compliance with Law, Rules and Regulations

At Elfonze, we are committed to operating with integrity and adhering to all applicable laws, rules, and regulations in every location where we conduct business. To uphold this commitment, all employees, including directors and executives, must adhere to the following principles:

- ✓ Adherence to Local Laws: Employees must comply with all relevant local laws, regulations, and legal requirements, as well as respect the customs and traditions of the countries where the company operates.
- ✓ Compliance with Company Policies: Employees are expected to follow all company rules, policies, and procedures, ensuring alignment with legal and ethical standards.
- ✓ Prohibition of Evasion or Misconduct: Employees must not engage in, support, or conspire to evade legal or regulatory compliance. Any attempt to bypass laws or company policies is strictly prohibited.
- ✓ Cooperation with Authorities: Employees must fully cooperate with regulatory and supervisory agencies. Any known or suspected violations of laws, regulations, or company policies should be reported promptly to the appropriate authorities within the organisation.

By maintaining strict compliance with all legal and regulatory obligations, we ensure that Elfonze remains a responsible and ethical organisation, fostering trust with stakeholders and the communities in which we operate.

CONFIDENTIAL

1.8.13 Safeguarding Company Property

At Elfonze, we expect all executives and employees to use company resources and assets responsibly to enhance corporate competitiveness and provide the best possible service to our customers. To uphold this standard, the following guidelines must be followed:

- ✓ Efficient Utilisation: Employees must use company resources and assets in a cost-effective manner to maximise benefits for the organisation.
- ✓ Protection of Assets: Employees should take necessary measures to protect company assets from damage, theft, misuse, or unauthorised access, ensuring they are well-maintained and utilised appropriately.
- ✓ Preventive Measures: Proper systems and procedures are implemented to safeguard company property, including insurance coverage against risks such as fire, natural calamities, burglary, or other potential damages.

By adhering to these guidelines, we ensure the long-term sustainability and security of Elfonze's assets, reinforcing our commitment to operational excellence and ethical responsibility.

CONFIDENTIAL

1.9 Confidentiality Policy

1.9.1 Confidentiality of Information

Elfonze is committed to maintaining the highest standards of confidentiality in compliance with Good Corporate Governance and applicable regulations. All Directors, Executives, and employees are required to handle confidential information responsibly, ensuring that it is not misused or disclosed in ways that could harm the company's business, reputation, or stakeholders. Confidential information includes but is not limited to customer lists, production data, employee records, financial strategies, trade secrets, and intellectual property.

1.9.2 General Guidelines

- Employees must not use confidential information for personal gain or external business activities.
- Disclosure of trade secrets, proprietary information, or sensitive data to third parties, including competitors, is strictly prohibited—even after leaving the company.

- Unauthorised copying, transferring, or sharing of sensitive company data, whether physical or digital, is strictly prohibited. Accessing or storing such data for personal use or external distribution is considered data theft and may lead to criminal prosecution.
- Upon separation, employees must return all company assets, files, and records. Any attempt to access company systems after separation will be treated as a security breach, resulting in legal consequences.

1.9.3 Penalties for Breach

Any misuse or unauthorised disclosure of company information will result in strict disciplinary action, which may include suspension, termination, or legal action depending on the severity of the breach. If such violations lead to financial or reputational harm, the company reserves the right to pursue legal proceedings and seek compensation for damages.

1.9.4 Employee Responsibilities

- Proper Use: Employees may only access and use confidential information as required for their job responsibilities.
- Limited Disclosure: Confidential matters must not be discussed with unauthorised personnel, including colleagues, customers, and external parties.
- Secure Handling:
  - Maintain a clear desk policy, do not leave sensitive documents unattended.
  - Use computer lockout features when stepping away from workstations.
  - Do not share passwords, and update your passwords regularly.
  - Label sensitive files as "Confidential" where applicable.
  - Ensure that mail marked "Confidential" is only opened by the intended recipient.
  - Avoid discussing confidential matters in public or where conversations may be overheard.

1.9.5 Protection of Digital Assets

- Computers regularly assigned to an employee should not be accessed by others without permission.

CONFIDENTIAL

- All digital data must be stored securely, and employees must comply with IT security policies.

1.9.6 Handling External Requests for Information

- The company will not release employee information to external parties without explicit written consent from the employee, except when legally required (e.g., court orders).
- Requests for employment verification will be limited to dates of employment and job titles, unless an exception is approved by the management.
- Any external inquiries from the press or media must be directed to the Marketing & Communications team.

1.9.7 Maintaining Confidentiality of Business Operations

Certain employees may have access to sensitive business information, including financial records, customer data, and strategic plans. This information must not be shared with unauthorised employees or external parties unless explicitly authorised.

1.9.8 Consequences of Policy Violation

Any breach of this Confidentiality Policy will lead to disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment and legal consequences.

Employees must immediately report any suspected breach of confidentiality to the HR Department.

CONFIDENTIAL

2. General Employment Information

2.1 Hiring Policy

Elfonze Technologies follows a structured and active recruitment and selection process to attract and hire qualified candidates who meet the company's employment needs. As an Equal Opportunity Employer, we encourage diversity and inclusivity in our hiring practices, ensuring a fair and transparent selection process.

2.2 Equal Opportunity

Elfonze Technologies values the diversity, skills, and unique perspectives that individuals bring to the workplace. We are committed to building an inclusive workforce that reflects the broader community, irrespective of:

- Gender, age, or marital status
- Disability or medical conditions
- Sexual orientation
- Race, colour, religion, ethnicity, or national origin

We maintain a work environment free from discrimination, victimisation, and harassment and expect all employees to uphold these principles. Employees are responsible for ensuring that their behaviour contributes to an inclusive and respectful workplace.

2.3 Employment Eligibility

- Minimum Age Requirement: No individual below the age of 18 years is eligible for employment at Elfonze Technologies.
- Educational Qualification: The minimum qualification for employment is a Bachelor's Degree or an equivalent qualification.

Each job posting clearly outlines the education, experience, and skill requirements. Only candidates who meet the stated minimum qualifications will proceed to the verification and interview stages.

2.4 Joining Process & Required Documents

New employees must complete the Background Verification form, which will be shared by the Human Resources Department. Additionally, they must submit photocopies of the following documents, which will be verified against the originals:

- Proof of Residence
- Educational Certificates
- Appointment, relieving, and Experience Certificates from previous employers
- Last 3 months' Salary Slips
- PAN Card
- Aadhaar Card
- Passport-sized Photographs

2.5 Employee Induction

Once the employee is onboarded, they will undergo an Induction Program, which includes:

- An introduction to the company, its policies, procedures, and operations
- A briefing on employee rights, responsibilities, and benefits

CONFIDENTIAL

- Meeting with team members and key personnel

This process ensures a smooth onboarding experience and helps employees integrate seamlessly into the organisation.

2.6 Appointment and Probationary Process

At Elfonze, employee appointments fall into the following categories:

Types of Appointments:

- New Hire: A newly appointed employee in the company is considered a new hire. All new hires must complete a probationary period of 1-3 months.
- Rehiring: A former employee who is rehired into the organisation.
- Transfers: Employees may be transferred or relocated to other Delivery Centers across the country.
- Promotions: Employees are promoted to a higher-grade position based on their performance or business requirements.

After completing the probationary period, a new hire becomes a permanent employee. If required, the probation period may be extended based on the manager's evaluation.

2.7 Employment Categories

Each employee falls under one of the following employment categories:

- Regular Full-Time Employees
  - Works for the company's full-time schedule.
  - Eligible for company benefits as per policy.

- Consultants- Full-time Employees
  - Works for the company's clients on a full-time schedule.
  - Eligible for company benefits as per policy.

- Probationary Employees
  - Newly hired employees are under evaluation.
  - If they complete the probation period successfully, they receive confirmation of employment.
- Contractual/Freelancer Employees
  - Hired temporarily for specific projects or to meet business needs.

CONFIDENTIAL

- Employment is limited in duration and does not imply permanent status.
- Receive legally mandated benefits, but are not eligible for company benefits.

- Interns/Trainees
  Elfonze follows an Intern/Trainee Program designed to recruit students from leading colleges and universities for a 3–6-month period each year. These recruitments are strictly project-based, allowing trainees to gain practical exposure to real-world business challenges.

  Key Guidelines:

  ✓ Project-Based Recruitment: Interns/Trainees will work on specific projects aligned with business needs.
  ✓ Stipend: Elfonze may provide stipends to Interns/Trainees, depending on project requirements and management discretion.
  ✓ Absorption Opportunity: Interns/Trainees who demonstrate exceptional performance and competency may be offered full-time employment opportunities.

  This aims to foster young talent, providing them with valuable industry experience while helping Elfonze identify potential future employees

2.8 Promotions

Elfonze's internal promotions are based on employee capability, performance, and readiness for the next role. Employees eligible for promotions must:

- Meet the minimum tenure and experience required for the position.
- Have demonstrated consistently high performance and a positive work record.
- Exhibit the necessary skills, leadership qualities, and adaptability.

2.9 Rehiring

Elfonze encourages the rehiring of former employees who will be treated as a new hire and must complete a 90-day introductory period. They must go through the new hire process.

2.10 Open-Door Policy

CONFIDENTIAL

At Elfonze, we believe in fostering a culture of open communication, transparency, and mutual respect. To support this, we have adopted an Open Door Policy, which allows all employees to freely approach any manager to discuss concerns, share feedback, or seek clarification on workplace matters.

Purpose:
Our Open Door Policy is designed to:

- Encourage open dialogue between employees and management.
- Provide a platform for discussing workplace concerns, suggestions, or complaints.
- Foster a work environment where employees feel heard, valued, and respected.

2.11 Personnel File Policy

At Elfonze, we maintain a confidential personnel file for each employee. These files are managed by the Human Resources (HR) Team and contain important employment-related documents.

2.11.1 Contents of the Personnel File:

The personnel file typically includes:

- Employment application and resume.
- Emergency contact details.
- Job references and employment verification records.
- Documented performance evaluations and disciplinary actions.
- Compensation history and department/job role changes.

Additionally, a separate payroll file is maintained, which includes an employee's salary history, tax-related information, and payroll records.

3. Work Timings

3.1 Working Hours

- Regular working days: Monday to Friday
- Standard working hours: 9:30 AM – 6:30 PM (subject to client requirements)
- Employees may need to work beyond regular hours based on project criticality.
- Employees with weekend and holiday duties will receive compensatory time off as per a roster set by the manager.

CONFIDENTIAL

4. Workplace Professionalism and Company Representation

4.1 Professionalism and Conduct Policy

At Elfonze, we believe that maintaining a professional and business-like image is essential in fostering trust and credibility with customers, prospective hires, vendors, visitors, and the public. Therefore, all employees are expected to uphold high standards of professionalism in their attire, personal hygiene, appearance, and overall conduct.

These guidelines serve to promote a workplace culture of appropriate business conduct, professionalism, and adherence to a professional dress code. However, employees are also responsible for using sound judgment and common sense in their attire and behaviour at all times. If an employee is deemed to be dressed inappropriately, their manager or HR representative will provide guidance and necessary coaching.

This section covers:

- Work-Appropriate Hygiene and Cleanliness Guidelines
- Work Dress Code
- The A, B, and C of Professional Conduct
- Meeting Etiquette

4.2 Work-appropriate Hygiene and Cleanliness Guidelines

Employees are expected to maintain proper hygiene and cleanliness throughout their working hours. This includes:

- Practicing personal hygiene, including regular oral care.
- Using deodorant or antiperspirant to prevent body odour.
- Keeping shared spaces such as the pantry, dining area, and restrooms clean and hygienic.
- Washing and putting away used coffee cups instead of leaving them near the wash basin, as uncleaned cups can attract pests.
- Disposing of used tissues and paper napkins properly.
- Notifying housekeeping staff in case of spills (e.g., coffee or water) to maintain cleanliness.
- If eating at your desk, ensure that leftover food is disposed of properly to prevent mess and odours.

CONFIDENTIAL

- Segregate and dispose of waste into dry and wet categories.

By following these guidelines, we contribute to a clean and healthy work environment for everyone.

4.3 Work Dress Code

The Company's objective in establishing a dress code is to enable employees to project a professional, business-like image while experiencing the advantage of more casual and relaxed clothing.
Employees whose roles require regular, in-person interactions with customers must adhere to a professional dress code that reflects the company's commitment to excellence and business decorum.

4.3.1 General Guidelines

Attire should be clean, well-ironed, properly fitted, and in good condition at all times.
Employees are expected to maintain a neat and professional appearance that aligns with a business environment.

4.3.2 Approved Attire

For Men:
- Formal pants and collared shirts
- Company-branded shirts/T-shirts
- Business casuals
- Formal shoes

For Women:
- Dress tops and dress pants
- Company-branded shirts/T-shirts
- Pant-suits
- Churidar
- Sari
- Formal shoes or sandals

Adhering to this dress code ensures a professional image that aligns with the company's standards and enhances workplace credibility. Employees may seek guidance from HR for any clarification regarding appropriate attire.

The company policy allows casual dressing every Friday and Weekend.

CONFIDENTIAL

Casual: Casual still means work-appropriate, so your clothes must still be neat and conservative.

4.4 The A, B, and C of Professional Conduct

- Appearance
  Your attire and presentation reflect the company's image. Dressing appropriately for work demonstrates professionalism and creates a positive first impression. After all, image is everything and perception matters.
- Behavior
  Professionalism extends beyond appearance—it includes how we interact with customers, colleagues, and stakeholders. Always be courteous, reliable, and customer-focused. Remember, "The customer is the boss," and treating both customers and colleagues with respect fosters a healthy work environment.
- Communication
  Effective communication is key to professional success. Be clear, respectful, and proactive in your interactions. Listen actively, understand customer expectations, and practice the golden rule of business: under-commit and over-deliver.

By adhering to these principles, we create a work culture that reflects excellence, respect, and professionalism in every aspect of our business.

4.5 Meeting Etiquette

- Respond to Meeting Invites – Accept or decline invitations promptly to inform the organizer of your availability.
- Respect Others' Time – Be punctual and notify attendees in advance if changes occur. Keeping others waiting is unprofessional.
- Be prepared – Carry a notepad and pen to jot down key points for future reference.
- Silence Your Phone – Keep mobile devices in silent/vibrate mode to avoid disruptions. Answer calls only in emergencies.
- Use English for Communication – As an equal opportunity employer, Elfonze encourages English as the standard language for official meetings.
- Know the Agenda – Review meeting topics in advance and prepare relevant notes to contribute effectively.

CONFIDENTIAL

5. Workplace Environment Policy

5.1 Sexual Harassment

At Elfonze, we believe that every employee has the right to be treated with dignity and respect. We are committed to fostering a workplace that is free, fair, and conducive to professional growth. Any form of sexual harassment is strictly prohibited, as it disrupts lives, hampers productivity, and affects the well-being of individuals.

Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to:

- Unwelcome physical contact or advances.
- Requests for sexual favours.
- Inappropriate sexual remarks or comments.
- Sharing or displaying sexually explicit content, including pornography.
- Any unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

Such behaviour creates a hostile work environment, undermining an individual's confidence and self-esteem. Elfonze has a zero-tolerance policy toward sexual harassment and is committed to taking strict action against any violations.

Employees are encouraged to report any instances of misconduct without fear of retaliation to posh@elfonze.com. Together, we can ensure a respectful and inclusive workplace for all.

Refer to the POSH policy for more details.

5.2 Health & Safety Guidelines

Elfonze is dedicated to maintaining a safe and healthy work environment. To achieve this, all employees are expected to adhere to the following Health & Safety Guidelines:

- Ergonomic Workstations: Set up your desk, chair, and monitor to reduce strain and promote good posture.
- Workspace Organisation: Keep your work area clutter-free and well-maintained to prevent accidents.
- Equipment Safety: Ensure that cables, devices, and other hardware are properly installed and secured.
- Incident Reporting: Report any hazards, equipment malfunctions, or discomfort immediately to HR or Facilities.

CONFIDENTIAL

5.3 Smoke-Free Environment

Elfonze promotes a smoke-free workplace to ensure a healthy environment. Smoking and tobacco use, including chewing tobacco, are prohibited in all enclosed company spaces. Smoking is allowed only inside personal vehicles without impacting others. Employees must dispose of tobacco waste properly, and no additional breaks are allowed for smoking. Violations may result in disciplinary action, including termination.

5.4 Alcohol and Drug-free Environment

Elfonze upholds an alcohol and drug-free workplace to ensure safety and productivity. The use, possession, sale, or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol is strictly prohibited for employees, vendors, and customers. This policy also covers after-effects that may affect work performance. Employees facing substance abuse issues are encouraged to seek treatment and reintegrate into the workplace.

5.5 Prohibitions and Penalties

Engaging in prohibited activities at the workplace may result in penalties based on the severity of the misconduct. Repeated violations can lead to termination. Misconduct includes excessive tardiness, unreported absences, insubordination, rude or abusive language, failure to follow departmental rules, dishonesty, and theft.

5.6 Workplace Visitors

5.6.1 General visitor policy

Employees must ensure that visitors schedule appointments in advance. All meetings should take place in designated reception or discussion areas. If a visitor, including a government official, requests company-related information or documents, they should be directed to the Operations or HR department.

5.6.2 Procedure of Visitor Policy

CONFIDENTIAL

Upon arrival, the receptionist will inform the concerned employee, who may either meet the visitor personally or direct them to the visitor's area. After the visit, the visitor should be escorted back to the reception. If the employee declines the meeting, the visitor will be sent back. Employees must not disclose company-related information, including customer data, legal matters, financial projections, or details about company plans, products, or operations.

5.7 Giving and Receiving Gifts and Perks

Elfonze prohibits executives and staff from giving or receiving gifts or gratuities from business or trading partners. However, office stationery and calendars may be exchanged as needed.

6. Infrastructure: Use of Company Equipment and Electronics

6.1 Computer and IT Resource Usage

Elfonze enforces strict guidelines for using company IT resources:

- SD/USB Usage: SD/USB ports are for official use only. External SD cards or thumb drives require approval from the Operations Team.
- Unofficial Software: Employees must use only authorised software provided by the Operations Team. Any unauthorised software must be removed immediately.
- Content: All digital content on company systems should be work-related. Minimal personal use is allowed if it does not pose security risks.
- Sharing of Folders/Systems: Folder and system sharing should be limited to relevant colleagues. Access must be revoked when no longer needed.
- Login Credentials: Employees must not share their login IDs or passwords with anyone.
- Regardless of the workplace, company login and company data should be accessed only through company-provided or company-approved devices.
- Personal devices, including laptops, tablets, or personal workstations, are not permitted within the office premises.

6.2 E-mail Usage

- Company email IDs should be used mainly for official communication, with minimal personal use allowed.
- Employees must use a professional email signature as per company guidelines.
- Subscribing to inappropriate sites and sharing confidential information without authorisation is prohibited.

CONFIDENTIAL

- Stay alert to phishing and spam, and report suspicious emails to the Operations team.
- Non-business emails and objectionable content are strictly forbidden.
- Violations may lead to disciplinary action, including termination.

6.3 Cell Phone Usage

- This applies to all devices used for calls, messages, internet browsing, or emails, whether company-supplied or personal.
- Cell phone use should be limited to work-related purposes to maintain productivity.
- Personal calls and messages should be minimal and non-disruptive.
- Phones must be kept on silent mode during working hours.
- Employees using company devices must not use phones while driving for personal or business purposes.

6.4 Internet Usage

- Internet access on company devices is strictly for business purposes. Limited personal use is allowed if it does not create security risks or violate company policies.
- Unauthorised downloads or access to non-business-related sites, including unethical or immoral content, are strictly prohibited.
- Employees must be cautious of security risks such as viruses, spyware, and data breaches that could compromise company information.

Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

6.5 Blogging and Social Media Usage

- The company supports employee participation in social media but expects professionalism in all work-related interactions online.
- As a representative of Elfonze, you are expected to maintain professionalism on social media such as LinkedIn, Instagram, X (Twitter), etc. Avoid posting content that is defamatory, discriminatory, or harmful to the company, its employees, or clients. Do not share any confidential or proprietary information on social media platforms. All external communication should be limited to content officially provided or approved by the company.

CONFIDENTIAL

- Employees must follow these guidelines when discussing the company, its products, employees, or partners:
  - Identify yourself as an employee by mentioning the company.
  - Do not speak on behalf of the company without permission.
  - Notify your manager if you plan to write about company-related matters online.

6.6 Confidential Information in Blogging

- Employees must not share confidential or proprietary information, including:
  - Company trademarks, financials, strategies, product releases, and internal processes.
  - Any information not officially released by the company.
- The company logo and trademarks may not be used without written permission.

6.7 Respect and Privacy in Blogging

Employees must:

- Speak professionally and respectfully about the company, employees, and customers.
- Avoid derogatory statements, misrepresentation, or sharing of copyrighted material.
- Respect colleagues' privacy and seek permission before posting internal company matters.

6.8 Power Conservation

- Employees must shut down systems at the end of the workday unless test applications are running.
- Lights, fans, and ACs must be switched off before leaving.
- The UPS system undergoes maintenance on Saturdays. Employees planning to work on Sundays must inform the Project Manager or Operations Team

7. Return of Company Property

At the company's request and upon employment separation, employees must return all the company assets, including but not limited to laptops, mouse, chargers, ID cards, and any other items containing the company's confidential information. This includes all copies of such information, as well as any other company property in their possession, control, or custody.

CONFIDENTIAL

8. Performance Expectations and Evaluation

8.1 Performance Management System

The performance of employees is assessed based on Key Result Areas (KRAs) and behavioural competencies. At Elfonze, performance appraisals are conducted every six months during April & October. The procedure is as follows:

- Each employee is assigned a set of KRAs in consultation with their respective Department Heads.
- At the end of six months, employees are evaluated based on their performance against the predetermined KRAs.
- Performance incentives or salary hikes are awarded based on the appraisal results.

8.2 Appraisal Process

- Employees receive the "Employee feedback and Appraisal form" through e-mail.
- Employees complete and submit the form within the specified date.
- The manager updates the form with his/her comments.
- The manager meets the employee and discusses the appraisal feedback.
- The form is returned to the Manager & HR.

8.3 Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)

If your performance is deemed unsatisfactory (as determined solely by the Company) at any time during your employment, you will be placed under a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), which is designed to provide you with a structured approach to enhance your performance and align with organisational expectations. It serves as a developmental tool aimed at addressing performance gaps, setting clear goals, and offering the necessary support to help you succeed in your roles.

Through this process, you will receive constructive feedback, guidance, and a defined timeframe to demonstrate improvement. During this, your progress will be closely monitored. Failure to meet the required performance standards during this period may result in the termination of your employment.

CONFIDENTIAL

8.4 Conflict of Interest

You are expected to act in the best interests of the Company at all times and avoid situations where personal interests may conflict with business decisions. Avoid any activity that:

- Adversely impacts your job performance or that of your colleagues.
- Creates a conflict with the Company's business interests or objectives.
- Negatively affects the Company's reputation, products, business, or employees.

Examples include:

- A family member working with a competitor, supplier, or client where your decisions could be influenced.
- Holding a financial interest in a business dealing with the Company.
- Using confidential information for personal benefit.
- Engaging in outside employment, consulting, or business activities that could interfere with current responsibilities.

8.5 Complaint Procedure

- The HR Department is responsible for receiving complaints from employees who believe their personal information or privacy has been compromised or that a violation of the privacy policy has occurred. The concerned authority must conduct a proper investigation.
- Employees may file a complaint by directly approaching the designated authority.
- If a violation is confirmed, the company will take necessary steps to mitigate any harmful effects of the disclosure and apply appropriate sanctions.

9. Employee Misconduct

Every employee is expected to act professionally, responsibly, and courteously at all times to maintain a positive and productive work environment.

- Inappropriate or unprofessional behaviour is disruptive and unproductive and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination.
- While this manual cannot list every possible form of misconduct, employees are expected to use common sense and good judgment in their behaviour.

CONFIDENTIAL

- The company's judgment, not an individual employee's, determines what is acceptable conduct. Employees cannot justify their actions solely based on personal beliefs or the absence of specific prohibitions in this manual.
- Inappropriate conduct, ranging from rudeness to theft, is unacceptable. The company holds the sole discretion to decide what constitutes inappropriate behaviour.

10. Reimbursement Policy

Reimbursement claims must be submitted through GreytHR.

10.1 Mobile Reimbursement

Expenses for devices that receive prior approval from the manager and are provided by the company exclusively for official purposes will be reimbursed.

10.2 General Reimbursement

For employees working after regular hours and weekends/holidays in such cases, the company will cover lunch/dinner and travel expenses with prior manager approval.

11. Travel Policy

Employees travelling for business purposes must obtain prior approval from their reporting manager. Travel can be booked through the Operations team, or employees may book their arrangements with prior approval and then get reimbursed via GreytHR. All travel expenses, including transportation, accommodation, and meals, should adhere to the company's reimbursement guidelines. Employees are expected to choose cost-effective options while ensuring comfort and safety. Expense claims must be submitted with valid receipts within the stipulated timeframe. For any assistance or clarification, please reach out to the Operations team.

12. Leaves & Holidays

This section outlines leave types, public holidays, eligibility, and the request process to ensure fair and consistent leave management.

- Employees must apply for leave via GreytHR, routed to their manager and HR for approval.
- If the leave balance is insufficient, HR will notify the employee, manager, and

CONFIDENTIAL

Finance, and it will be treated as a Loss of Pay (LOP).

12.1 Leave Rules

- Leave can only be taken if there is a balance; otherwise, it will be LWP with no pay or allowances.
- Unapproved leave extensions may lead to disciplinary action.
- In case of sickness or emergencies, employees must inform their Reporting Manager or HR.
- All leave requests must be submitted via GreytHR.

12.2 Types of Leave.

The following types of leave can be availed by employees:

- Earned/Annual Leave
- Sick/Casual Leave
- Maternity Leave
- Paternity Leave
- Public Holidays

12.2.1 Earned Leave (EL)/Annual Leave (AL)

- Eligibility: All employees.
- Accrual: 18 days per year, prorated based on tenure.
- Salient Features:
  - This leave accrues at one day for every 20 days worked.

12.2.2 Sick Leave (SL)/Casual Leave (CL)

- Eligibility: All employees.
- Entitlement: 6 days per year.
- Salient Features:
  - A medical certificate is required for sick leave exceeding 3 consecutive days, used for health-related issues.
  - Casual leave cannot be carried forward and is meant for short-term personal needs.

12.2.3 Maternity Leave

- Eligibility: A woman is eligible for paid maternity leave if she has worked for at least 80 days in the 12 months preceding her expected delivery date, with a maximum of 26 weeks for the first two children and 12 weeks for subsequent deliveries in accordance with the Maternity Benefit Act of 1961.

CONFIDENTIAL

- Entitlement: Women employees will get the full salary for 26 weeks as per applicable laws, which includes basic wage, DA, HRA, other cash allowances, and incentive bonus. Women employees are not entitled to get overtime earnings, a bonus other than an incentive bonus, PF and pension funds, and gratuity amounts for that particular maternity leave period.
- Salient Features:
    - The leave period allows adequate time for recovery and childcare.
    - This also applies to adoptive/surrogate & commissioning mothers.

Please refer to the Maternity Leave section in the Leave Policy.

12.2.4 Paternity Leave

- Eligibility: Male employees who have completed at least 6 months of service are eligible for Paternity Leave. This leave is applicable for the birth of up to two children
- Entitlement: Eligible employees are entitled to 3 days of paid leave, which must be availed within 3 months from the date of childbirth.
- Salient Features:
    - Encourages parental involvement
    - Non-transferable.
    - Applicable only for the first two children.

12.2.5 Compensatory Off (Comp-Off)

- Eligibility: Employees working on holidays/weekends due to business needs.
- Entitlement: Must be availed within 15 days.
- Salient Features:
    - Not cumulative; must be approved in advance.
    - Employees can take a working day as compensation for working at the manager's or team lead's request on a holiday or weekend.

12.2.6 Unpaid Leave

- Eligibility: Employees exceeding leave entitlement.
- Entitlement: Subject to managerial approval.

CONFIDENTIAL

- Salient Features:
  - Leave taken beyond entitlement without approval will lead to salary deductions

12.2.7 Public Holiday

- Eligibility: All employees.
- Entitlement: The holiday list includes national holidays & regional holidays when the company remains closed. Regional holidays are based on local festivals and cultural events, ensuring inclusivity for employees from diverse backgrounds.
- Salient Features:
  - The list of holidays is published at the beginning of each calendar year by the HR Team.
  - Employees are encouraged to review the list and plan their schedules accordingly.

Refer to the Leave Policy for a detailed explanation

13. Absence

Unauthorised absence from work for more than three consecutive days without any prior intimation, along with failure to respond to official communication via phone or email, will be considered a potential case of absconding.

- On the 4th day of absence, HR will send a formal warning email.
- If there is no response and the employee does not report back within 10 days from the date of the warning, it will be treated as a voluntary termination of employment.
- Such an exit will be classified as absconding or a bad exit, and the company will not issue any employment-related documents, including relieving or experience letters.
- In such cases, all company assets must be returned. Failure to do so will result in legal action being initiated to recover the same.

14. Work from Home

A work-from-home policy is introduced to provide flexibility to employees to take care of personal or family emergencies, parenting needs, medical reasons, etc. The work-from-home option is not an entitlement.

CONFIDENTIAL

14.1 Eligibility

While in general, this applies to all employees, employees can work from home only if there is no impact on their job duties on account of working from home on that day. For example, people whose responsibilities include interaction and coordination with other team members or who need close supervision will find it difficult to avail of the 'Work from Home' option. It is left to the individual's reporting manager to decide whether the individual can work from home based on the impact on day-to-day functioning.

14.2 Process

The option is limited to twice a month. Employees should raise a request with their respective managers in advance to ensure business continuity and no loss of productivity.

There could be exceptional circumstances where employees can avail of the work-from-home option for extended periods. However, this would be at the manager's discretion.

Note: Management may grant WFH beyond the standard limit in special cases such as medical emergencies or extraordinary circumstances

14.3 Communication

Staying in regular contact ensures that employees remain engaged and aligned with the team's productivity, even when working remotely. Employees are encouraged to use email, Teams, IM services, and phone calls extensively to prevent any miscommunication. Those opting for remote work are required to clock a minimum of 9 hours per day. Sudden remote work requests with less than 2 days' notice are discouraged, and unapproved absences may be treated as leave.

14.4 Abuse of the Policy

Managers have the discretion to approve or deny work-from-home requests based on ongoing projects and assignments. This flexibility is granted with good intent, but if any employee is found misusing the privilege, it may be revoked without prior notice or explanation.

CONFIDENTIAL

15. Background and Reference Check

The company will conduct a background verification process, including verification of education, previous employment, criminal records, address, and other relevant aspects. This process may be carried out with the assistance of a third-party agency named FactSuite when required. You are required to submit photocopies of necessary documents to facilitate this verification. If you do not pass the background verification, appropriate actions, including withdrawal of the offer of employment, may be taken based on the recommendations of the background verification team and as per the company's policies.

16. Notice Period

Your employment is subject to a three-month notice period. Notice must be given via official email.

16.1 Buyout Clause

- An employee may opt to buy out the unserved portion of their notice period, subject to management approval.
- The buyout amount will be calculated based on the employee's gross salary for the unearned period unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.
- The company reserves the right to approve or deny the buyout request based on business requirements and knowledge transfer needs.

16.2 Gardening Leave

- The company may place an employee on gardening leave during the notice period, restricting them from actively working but continuing to pay their salary.
- Employees on gardening leave must remain available for consultation and refrain from engaging with any competitors, clients, or projects outside the company.
- Any violation of gardening leave conditions may result in disciplinary action.

17. Termination of employment

Employment may be terminated immediately, without prior notice or salary for the unserved period, under the following circumstances, subject to due process and a fair investigation:

CONFIDENTIAL

- The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment summarily if there are reasonable grounds to believe you are guilty of misconduct, or a breach of contract or if your actions have caused financial or reputational loss to the Company.
- If you have engaged in unethical conduct, including making illegal monetary profits, accepting gratuities, or receiving unauthorised rewards, in cash or kind, from any of the Company's affairs, subsidiaries, or related entities.

Employment termination at Elfonze falls under the following categories:

1. Dismissal: Immediate termination without notice in cases of misconduct as per the employee handbook or if the employee is absent without authorisation for more than 15 days.

2. Resignation: Employees who wish to leave must submit a resignation and serve the notice period as stated in their appointment letter.

In case of termination, where the employee is asked to leave, the Company reserves the right to decide on the payment for the notice period.

Poor performance, where the employee fails to meet job expectations, may lead to termination. In such cases, the employee will receive feedback, warnings, and adequate time for improvement. Violations of company policies may also result in termination.

18. Separation Policy

The separation process is carried out according to the Separation Policy, which requires the employee to return the company assets, and HR will get the sign-off from all the departments.

The employee is required to go through an Exit interview conducted by the Human Resource Personnel.

- The separation process starts with an intimation of resignation from the employee to the manager.
- Upon acceptance of resignation, the same is intimated to HR.
- It is mandatory for you to serve the 3-month notice period.
- You must hand over any books, documents, records, computer hardware and software, keys, or other property belonging to or related to the business of the Organisation. You must not retain any other documentation or property of the Organisation in your possession or control.

- A formal exit interview will be conducted with HR to get input and feedback.
- Finance will compute the final settlement, and the same will be made within 45 days from the relieving date.

Following separation, you are also governed by certain post-separation obligations of secrecy and confidentiality.

19. Employment Compensation & Payroll Information

19.1 Pay & Confidentiality

Your pay comprises your salary and allowances as stated in your offer letter. Any changes in your pay will be notified to you in writing. Details about your pay are confidential information and should not be divulged to your co-workers at any point in time.

Payment of salary shall be done on the 5th of every month. If the 5th happens to be a holiday, the salary shall be credited on the previous working day. All payments are subject to statutory deductions and will be paid into your account through HDFC Bank.

19.2 Compensation Package Breakup

Salary Head	Monthly Break-up (INR)	Annual Break-up (INR)
Basic
House Rent Allowance
Medical Insurance
Special Allowance
Employees' contribution to the Provident Fund
Gross Salary
Employer's contribution to the Provident Fund
Gratuity
Cost to the company

Note: Your salary and all other benefits included in your remuneration package will be paid after deducting tax at the source, as per the applicable laws.

You are also entitled to the following additional benefits:

- Medical Insurance Coverage of INR 5,00,000/- p.a.
- Gratuity is payable upon completion of continuous employment tenure as mandated by the Gratuity Act.

Please note that a Permanent Account Number (PAN) is mandatory for salary processing. If you do not have a PAN already, then please apply for the same at the earliest.

1. House Rent Allowance (HRA): This will be 40% of your basic salary.
2. Special Allowance: Special Allowance will be in the range of 0% to 10% of the annual fixed compensation.
3. Conveyance Allowance: Conveyance allowance will be the balancing figure in your compensation structure.
4. Provident Fund (PF): This will be in accordance with the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. If you are an active PF member, participation will be mandatory. If you choose not to opt for PF, the conveyance allowance will be adjusted accordingly.
5. Gratuity: You will be eligible for Gratuity if you have completed at least 5 years of service in the company as per the Payment of Gratuity Act 1972.

19.3 Deductions from Gross Salary

- All Employees will be required to become members of the Employee Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) if they are not already members.
- As per the INR 15,000 minimum wage rule, the Provident Fund (PF) contribution is capped at INR 1,800 for both the employee and the employer. This means:
    - Employee Contribution: A maximum of INR 1,800 will be deducted from the employee's salary towards PF.
    - Employer Contribution: The employer will contribute an equivalent amount of INR 1,800 to the employee's PF account, which will be allocated as follows:
        - INR 550 to Employee Provident Fund (EPF)
        - INR 1,250 to Employee Pension Fund (EPS)
        - INR 75 to Employees' Deposit Linked Insurance (EDLI)
        - INR 75 to EPF Administrative Charges

CONFIDENTIAL

This ensures compliance with EPFO regulations while maintaining uniform contributions.

- A professional tax of INR 200 is applicable for a gross salary greater than INR 15,000/month.
- ESI: Applicable on gross salary up to INR 21,000/- employee contribution towards ESI @ 0.75% on gross salary. Beyond this limit, company insurance coverage will be provided.
- Income Tax is subject to declaration and tax-saving investments.
- Gratuity is calculated at 5% of the basic salary, as per the prevailing company policy.
- Deduction for Contribution to Pension Scheme (Section 80CCD (2)):
  - Section 80CCD (2) allows tax deduction benefits on contributions made by the employer to the employee's pension fund account.
  - Maximum Tax Deduction (Section 80CCD (2)): Up to 10% of the employee's salary (basic pay and dearness allowance).
- Deduction for Contribution to VPF (Section 80C):
  - VPF (Voluntary Provident Fund): Additional voluntary contribution to EPF, eligible for tax benefits under Section 80c (up to INR 1.5 Lakh per year).

20. Basket of Allowances (BOA)

- The Basket of Allowances will be paid to you as part of your monthly salary.
- You have the flexibility to choose the components and amounts under these allowances based on the options available on the Company intranet, aligned with your preferences and income tax planning.
- The Company provides Mediclaim coverage for you and your immediate dependents (Self, Spouse, and Children) with a Sum Insured of INR 5 Lakhs per annum.
- Telephone reimbursements would be granted for official calls.

20.1 Flexi Benefit Basket

CONFIDENTIAL

Tax benefits can be utilised for the amount allocated to the Flexi Basket, which is routed through our partner, "PLUXEE".

Category	Max Cap	Monthly Max	Description
Fuel	INR 52,800	INR 4,400	The amount that will be added to the multi-benefit card is exempt and is not transferable.
Communication	INR 30,000	INR 2,500	A maximum of one landline and one postpaid connection in the name of the member will be considered for tax exemption.
Meal Pass	INR 26,400	INR 2,200	Meal cards are exempt and are not transferable.
Books and Periodicals	INR 36,000	INR 3,000	The amount that will be added to the multi-benefit card is exempt and is not transferable.
Driver Salary	INR 39,600	INR 3,300	Original bills can be submitted and claimed for tax exemption if a chauffeur is hired to commute to the office.
Office Wear	INR 20,000	NA	The amount that will be added to the multi-benefit card is exempt and is not transferable.
LTA	INR 2,00,000	NA	Leave travel allowance will be tax-exempt as per the prevailing company policy.

 All the above benefits are as per the prevailing company policy. Subject to change from time to time.

21. Retirement

The retirement age for employees is 58 years.

CONFIDENTIAL

INDEX OF POLICIES

- Anti-discrimination and Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Policy
- Attendance and Punctuality Policy
- Clean Desk Policy
- Code of Conduct Policy
- Customer Complaint Form
- Elfonze Salary Advance Policy
- Employee Discipline and Termination Policy
- General Workplace Safety Policy
- Harassment and Workplace Violence Prevention
- Leave Policy
- PoSH Policy
- Social Media Policy
- Women Safety at Work Place policy

CONFIDENTIAL